

Para Jump

KATUKURUNDA: The Com-mando Regiment Training School came into existence in 1977 with the need to combat hijacking and terrorism. But nevetheless, it has diversified its main role into many other fields of military training so as to accommodate a very much deviated type, where advance military tactical and operational training is being given to the normal comman-do soldiers. The Sri Lanka Army personnel who completed the parachute course at the Com-mando Regiment Training School showed their skills during their passing out ceremony at the Katukurunda Air Force camp.

Text and Pictures
by Sriyantha Walpola

Para Jump

KATUKURUNDA: The Commando Regiment Training School came into existence in 1977 with the need to combat hijacking and terrorism. But nevetheless, it has diversified its main role into many other fields of military training so as to accommodate a very much deviated type, where advance military tactical and operational training is being given to the normal commando soldiers. The Sri Lanka Army personnel who completed the parachute course at the Commando Regiment Training School showed their skills during their passing out ceremony at the Katukurunda Air Force camp.

Text and Pictures
by Sriyantha Walpola

