

The Sri Lanka Air Force is supplying meal parcels to the IDPs in the Settikulam Welfare Centre. Here, parcels being brought to the welfare center by helicopter. Picture by T. Vivekarasa, Vavuniya special correspondent

A hospital with all facilities donated by the Government of France is functioning in Settikulam. Here French doctors treating the IDPs. Picture by T. Vivekarasa, Vavuniya special correspondent

The Nation Building and Estate Infrastructure Ministry dispatched apparel garment worth Rs. 112 million to the IDPs in Vanni. Here Nation Building Minister S.M. Chandrasena sending off these items to Vanni from Orugodawatta store on June 10, 2009. Picture by Ashraf A. Samad, Dehiwala - Mt. Lavinia special correspondent

In response to an appeal made by Provincial Councils and Local Government Minister Janaka Bandara Tennekoon, donations worth Rs. 450,000 of dry rations, garments for children were donated by businessmen in Kegalle. It was handed over to Minister Tennekoon by Kegalle Urban Council Secretary Deepa Dayanganee recently. Ministry Officials and representatives from the Kegalle Urban Council were also present.

Donations collected from Colombo for Internally Displaced People in relief villages were handed over at Settikulam by Textile Industries Minister Mahinda Ratnatilleka and Ven. Madulawawe Sobhitha Thera recently. Here the Minister and Thera in conversation with Government officials at the Settikulam relief village. Picture by Bandula Alahakoon

A group of Chinese and Malaysian nationals, on a request by Fisheries and Aquatic Resources Minister Felix Perera, handed over a consignment of dry rations to the IDPs in Vavuniya. The dry rations worth Rs. 400,000 was handed over to the Minister recently at his residence.

