

Dream of a lifetime

The dream of a lifetime; the swish of the veil, the peeling of bells: My wedding 2010 brought this dream close to reality. Held from March 12 to March 14 at the BMICH, the exhibition showcased a variety of bridal products and services. Exotic bouquets, breathtaking gowns, exquisite jewellery; the event took every aspirant bride and groom to a wonderland.

Daily News acted as the official print media partner of the event. Exhibitors ranging from salons, bridal wear, photography studios and hotels participated in the event. My Wedding 2010 was organized for the seventh consecutive year by CEC Events (Pvt) Ltd. Pictures by Sulechana Gamage
