

Evening wear at Continental

Evening wear was the theme of Heist Bar at Ceylon Continental Hotel last week. The event was photographed by Sulochana Gamage for Daily News

Nilanthi weds Niroshan

Niroshan and Nilanthi
Pictures by Tennyson Edirisinghe

Popular artiste Nilanthi Dias wed Niroshan Krishantha Fonseka at the President's house in the presence of President Mahinda Rajapaksa on August 10. The wedding ceremony took place at Mount Lavinia hotel on August 17.

Actresses Himali Sayurangi and Shalini Tharuka were the bridesmaids. Actors Suraj Mapa and Dhananjaya Srinwardena were the best men. Cricketer Romesh Kaluwitharana's son Ramith Ravindra and Himashi Manupriya of Derana Little Star fame were the page boy and flower girl. The other two flower girls were Anjana and Ivana.

Beauticians Deepika Gunasekara and Hasini Gunasekara dressed the bride. Lassana Flora supplied the flower bouquets. Nilanthi's sari was from Sari Mandir, Wellawaltha. Dhananjaya Bandara designed the going away kit.

The couple with their bridesmaids, best men, page boy and flower girls

Styles to fit your personality
Dilly's unveil five new collections

Dilly's Fashions, the renowned clothing brand founded by Dilani Wijsekera recently launched five new collections. A fashion show was held recently at Park Street Mews to introduce the fresh young faces of Dilly's to an already established customer base.

Titled 'Which Dilly Girl Are You?', the five new collections are unique and aimed at the many different personalities, which make up the community: Emma (the 'Eco Chic'), Louise (the 'Workwear collection'), Trudy (the 'Party Diva') and Alexis (the 'Rock Chic'). Young designers played a large part in the fashion show, ensuring they gained the extensive experience that comes with events organization and the more complex issues that come from compiling a marketing program.

